Money determines your value to society.

If you have no money and no work society has thrown you away.

If you have work but no money, you are a expendable slave and your loyalty to your master is all you have.

If you have a good paying career and like your work you are still a slave, but content in your servitude.

When did humanity become a slave race?

I am trash! Society has thrown me away and the only way I survive is off of the change thrown to me by the slaves I am a servant to. So be it. You have to expect contempt. You have to expect me to rise above or die trying. I am who I am.

I had a dream I couldn't wake up from... I dreamt I was sleeping in shadow of death, pain, and darkness... I dreamt I could not dream I could only sleep... Still I could not wake up. I tried turn when I thought I had but I had not and I tried to turn again... I was just dreaming about sleeping not really sleeping, I was awake... But that was just a dream. Just a dream.

Any major city that rises up in the United States will have the ability to overthrow the U.S. government. THE U.S. DOES NOT HAVE THE RESOURCES IN THE COUNRTY TO PUT DOWN EVEN A SMALL UPRISING HERE. The abuse of our troops in Iraq and Afghanistan have left this country open for repatriation from within. You could be the person who leads your city to victory over the communist plague that has made "Freedom" just a propaganda catch phrase... and truly made American freedom a synonym for slavery here in America. Today we must stand strong and united in our demand for a brighter future for generations to come. Most police and army officials are ready to help bring REAL freedom back to the American government. Those who belive in their oath to protect and serve the American people, are ready. So am I. Together we will fix America.

100,000 people all get together and March in Washington, it did no good. We are not a generation of pot smoking hippies, the next march may be 100,000 fully armed Americans. And just that fast we will have a new American government. Just that easy. Just like our American constitution guaranteed our right to do!

Your should never fear your government. It is their to serve you! Not vice versa.

I wonder if we the People are ready to take the power back, in our own lives and in the government. George W Bush is risking the life of every American by attacking China. Today he attached China.

Has Israel become like Nazi Germany? Are a lot of Israelis basically Neo Nazi Jewish serpremist? Trying to wipe out the palisinians like Hitler tried to wipe out the Jewish people?

When I posed this question to a Jewish person from Israel they spit on me (twice) and said people who can not make enough money to support a family should be put in concentration camps because that is fare, unlike the way Hitler selected the "All Jewish People".

I asked, if it is almost impossible to get a job because you are Palestinian, isn't that genocide?

She replied that Palestinians are scum and it is the fault of all Palestinians if one Palestinian fights back against that Jewish people.

It seems to me that discriminating against people based on creed and color, and considering the Jewish people "Good", and Palestinians inferior... Is a form of Neo Nazism. It seems to be that she (the person I was talking to) is a Jewish Nazi praying to God for me to "Get what is coming to me", and the Palestinians to all die. Perhaps if I made $200,000 a year I would think I was better then everyone too... but I would still not be a racist and I would still not be a anti-Muslim Jewish serpremist Nazi like her.

Ten fold your reaction, ten fold your fear. For I am who I am, but this is not me...

I will be judged not on my intentions but on my effect. Not on my will to power by on my ability to do so. Not on the quality of my servitude, or my vocational skills but on my passionate refusal to be enslaved buy a system that betrayed me. To be a good little worker for a Mafia style Government based Terrorism and called "America". Do I hate Americans? No I hate what America has become, it is clear that the government does not represent the will of the people. Terrorism is Americas over populated prision system. Terrorism is over taxation, terrorism is killing as meany as 100,000 Middle Eastern civilians... Because they have a different culture. If chicago is wiped of the map by a nuke, it would be unfortunate... Internationally, it would be seen as justified. America is out of control. Americans are not controling America, the coprations are, that is the beast that is the downfall, as it has been every world since Alfa 1.

Assuming that the universe has seasons, this must be spring. You think you are so important? You are nothing, all life on earth is nothing... To the greater universe, we are less then nothing and our living earth is just dust in the wind.

I am guilty of supporting a terrorist organization, the organization is the Untied States government. Money that is taken out of my pay check goes to buy bombs that kill people. To destroy governments that did nothing more then offer an alternative culture. That is the way of the world, as an American I am a slave to the American Government, with every hour I work, and every product I buy I feed the beast. If I try to resist I will be destroyed. That is the American way. No father rights and we are all slaves, to the political Mafia call democracy.. Ha ha... All we are is dust in the wind. I wish I could be a beam of light, I wish I could decide the way the wind blows. If I am hot or cold it is because that is what surrounds me... I wish I knew my daughter... Every person that puts money into America shares some of the responsibility for the fact that I do not, even me. I know what I will say, "Yes I loved your mother very much but I could not afford the money it took to be a father... Sorry. Having a family was the happiest I had ever been, but happy does not pay the bills, and you deserve the best. I would never wish a broken home on anyone. I would have stayed in hell for eternity to spare you the hell of growing up in a broken home... Wishes and love don't make up for not having money. Money makes the world go round."

So give money, lead me to power, and let me have my vengeance on the system. This can never be made "OK" for me, but if you give me the power I will do everything I can to make sure it never happens to anyone, every again. All that took part in destroying my family make amends to me, and to my daughter. Still then it will not take away the pain YOU have caused, it is a start. We are partly resonasbale for the way we alow the world to be. Yes I feel you owe it to me, if you have been wronged then I owe it to you to fix the sytem. WE MUST FIX THE SYSTEM. That is what this neurokinteic system is designed to do, but it is up to us to make it work.

The American family does not have to be an oxymoron.
We do not have to be slaves to our government, or the hartless corporations that control it!

Thank you Cindy Sheehan you show the world that the American people are not Evil Christians out to destroy Islam. (Nor are the American troops who are being misused and forced to be the "Bad Guy" in a "Bad Situation")

It is true that pulling out of Iraq now would be bad... But staying will be even worse. Cindy Sheehan you make me proud to be an American... I have not felt that way since the first bomb dropped in Afghanistan, or perhaps since I realized that America hates fathers and will destroy any country with fathers rights.. Perhaps that is an exaggeration, in any case... Thanks for telling "Truth to Power" I truly admire your courage and persistence.

August 10th 6005 AL 12:56 PM CST

Take note of this. I am 27. I never expected to live past 27. Every day I live past 27 is a day I never counted on. (assuming I live until April).

According to Maslows Hierarchy of Needs every human considers personal safety less important than Biological and Physiological needs (air, food, drink, shelter, warmth, sex, sleep...)

So according to Maslow, if a person does not have air, food, drink, shelter, warmth, sex, sleep, etc...

They are not going to ever be "reasonable" as long as they do not have air, food, drink, shelter, warmth, sex, sleep, etc..

What about when a person has "Transcendence of needs" then no longer has air, food, drink, shelter, warmth, sex, or sleep...

Is this person more or less dangerous to the world around them?

1st off the world is never in danger from one human. The world is only in danger from the collective actions of humanity as a group. Every person is a threat to someone. Wether it is in terms of job status, or violent conflicts this is the nature of survival of the fittest. So what about those people or groups that have been "beaten" but are still alive. The world has said "You are not fit to survive, you are not worth the food you eat, or the shelter you inhabit." Then a person must fight for pure survival. A person becomes degraded to the point of a completely animalistic survival mode... Out of necessity. It becomes worth it to kill a rich man for his sandwich if the man will not share and you need that sandwich to survive... Or for your family to survive... What about if you have lost your will to live? The force that broke you would like you to "just die!" Except that you are inferior and not worth the food it takes to feed you. The truth is that is what puts people over the edge. You what me to die? You want my people to die? Out of pure necessity the inner strength of the group loosing is forced to use suicidal sacrificial attack methods to regain ground... Like and individual is willing to cut off their own arm to save the body. The sacrifice of lives is used to rip the infrastructure of the aggressor to shreds and destroy the it from the inside out. The aggressor being viewed as "the Beast"... "We want to rule ourselves..." "We want the BEAST destroyed". Crossover. If you are going to die anyway... And your life is no longer worth living because of "the Beast" then some choose to die to stop the Beast rather than live as a slave to it. I believe that it is far more noble to die for what you believe rather the live as a slave to something you do not believe in.

Yes it is understandable at times to use Kamikaze or Suicide missions. Death before imprisonment. Death before slavery. Death before starvation. At least the then death has meaning. The purpose of a suicide mission with civilian targets is psychological impact and divide and concur a population... I do not agree with crushing systems threw the elimination of the soft traiget civilian counterparts... I understand why the people in control of systems become targets. do not believe that an eye for an eye is a good policy when talking about civilian casualties. If the goal is to "Get even" then I believe the number of citizens the Middle Eastern militants would want to kill is 100,000 civilians not 50. Can you imagine what it would be like to lose 100,000 fellow Americans? Have some compassion... That is what we have done to the civilians of the Middle East... Some frozen chicken will not make up for that ... Just Get Out!

What happened with me? Why did I start risking my life to stop the beast from it's massacre... It's a long story. It has nothing to do with Islam.

It is about human rights being trampled especially fathers rights in the United States of America.

The solders of the USA die for less then nothing! They die for a lie the American people were foolish to believe. If you have a friend or family member in Iraq who dies in service of the (a slave to) "Great lie" you should be angry! Not at me for pointing out the tragic loss of life but for the system reasonable for abusing there lives... So the Iraq people can have Wal-Mart... No one wants the kind of slavery corporations lead to. We are just starting to feel the grasp of the beast on our everyday lives. It will be worse... The beast will enslave the world. The only hope I see for humanity is in the people that will not lie down and die! The people that stop blaming themselves and go after the root of the problem! Yes the only hope I see for this world are the people that fight against my fiends and my fellow Americans... That makes me very frustrated. Because I believe in the solders them selves and in my friends trying to serve the America they believe in but then they are forced into commit genocide. I am not angry at them I appreciate there sacrifice and I am sorry for every solders that dies, but die they must because they have been forced into a situation where they are the "The Bad Guy". No fault of there own... Communist America must be stopped and it must be the people at the top by non violent and legal means. The Ameracan people will evetually rise up but it will not be until they are forced to but lack of food and money and at that point they will see this is a war of the master (the beast) and slaves that refuse to be slaves. Then we will see that it was never about Islam... It was about Islam's teaching not to except the beast, Christianity teaches that too and when the Christians see the beast for what it is they to will make war with it. They to will fail to destroy it. It will reign supreme over a further enslaved humanity.

I do not care to be a part of any of this... It is not up to me.

P. S. Note to people using the term Terrorist... You can not call everyone that defies you a terrorist... You are making the term Terrorist mean someone who fights for there freedom against an invaliding force.... or simply opposes the war in the middle east! THAT IS NOT WHAT TERROIST IS SUPPOSED TO MEAN.

By some peoples definition even I am a Terrorist... lol Just because I say what I feel to be true... And I legally running Al Qaeda for the world from the USA... a non violent, commonsense fathers rights anti-war organization committed to empowering individuals and shrinking the conglomerate beast.

Did you get that , "Me good guy"... I suppose everyone thinks they are "The Good Guy"... Or they justify being the bad guy with it is "For the good of my family... Excuse", or better you then me! Then it is back to survival of the fittest. The logic of the boiled Frog.

So if I quit (lets say I got a good job offer or ran out of way to keep running it.) Then you all would have to figure out who runs it next. Who would fight for humanity, against the Beast if I was gone? Who would be able to spread a message of "Live and Let Live"... Peace and Understanding, without telling people to lay down and take it from people who try to destroy you, and your way of life.

The "Terrorism" was the wool that was pulled over the eyes of America as we became slaves to the Beast and as America (not Americans) became the "The Evil of the world".

We all die sometime, what was your life used for? If you were me what would you do?

Journal Entry

333 days between the 07/07 bombing and 06/06/06 coincidence? No. What do you have planned ? Will June 6th 2006 be a day just like every other for you? For anyone?

What will I be doing in on 06/06/06? I will be in jail or I will be in Nevada in the desert not to far from the Hoover Damn cooking some Hot Dogs over a fire... Contemplating my place in the universe and setting up camp for the night.

Perhaps off in the distance I will see you laying waste to Las Vegas with a simple pull of the (water) plug... Or perhaps I will see others stand against the Beast and lay waist to all the cities of the world as I watch them burn to the ground from my campsite, just out side the fallout zone. Just far enough to not have to hear them screaming...

So what does all of this have to do with Islam and Christianity? NOTHING! It is all a smoke screen. People have to die because we have a limited amount of space and resources. This is not God's Judgement day, this is humanities Judgement day...

Humanity must judge itself. God will over see the result, humanity will have more time, or we will not, but in the end non of us will see the ultimate result. Now is the time to Unite and Prepare for 06/06/06 a day just like every other FOR NO ONE!

Let me tell you what I think... America has become poison. Not because Americans are bad but because corporations have no mercy, America is a corporation. Every American was told we where a shareholder... It was a lie I just found out my shares are worthless, and I am actually a slave to a monster. That monster is Corporatism...

Is earth a flower in bloom?

Is this a war against "The Beast", Against "The Machine" or are The Machine and The Beast the same?

THIS IS NOT A WAR OF ISLAM AND CHRISTIANITY!

This is not a war of race or creed... That is just a smoke screen.

Like Scorpion venom in my coffee. Like the hope and fear of revaluation or the need for redemption offset by the fear of being judged. So what happened, I knew you poisoned the coffee, I drank it anyway... I drank it anyway. I knew that if I die young for what I believe in it will have been far more valuable then if I die of old age as a broken man... This is what Holy War is all about. Life and family takes a back seat to fixing the world... Nothing is more important then insuring that our children have a place in this world. To insuring that Mankind survives. It seems that the Islamic Extremist have the best odds of defeating the beast(Corporations). The Christians have become slaves to the "Evil Empire", the Muslims resist... It seems that Al Qaeda are the Holy Warriors of Gods Chosen people... Those who refuse to bow down before the beast! Those who stand and fight for humanity against the Beast(Corporations) are Gods chosen people, and the one who leads them is our current Christ.

We fight for the future of Mankind, against "the Beast", we are God's chosen people.... We are Al Qaeda. Some of us are Islamic, Christian, Nihilists, Atheists.... We all refuse to be Slaves to The Beast. We all know that those of you that are slaves to The Beast, do it for the money or because you fell for the propaganda.

Journal Entry <-19th-{ }-6005 AL->11:06 AM CST

I have been watching C-Span more and more... This is what I have seen.

There are secrete Prayer Meetings only open to Christians members of government before senate meetings.

Every U.S. Senete sesion starts with a prayer! Meny members of senate seem to wish death on all people fighting against the U.S. Occupation and the U.S. attempt to transform the Middle east into a Christian, Corporatism, America like sociopathic Democracy.

The Christians are the people trying to take away Human Rights, and support the Geonside in Iraq. The Non Christians, do not seem to see the value of the war... And are fighting to save Human Rights. So in my oppion this is a Holy War for the republicans. The Christain exstreamists against the rest of the world. We need to get Christians out of Government. If Chirstians want to kill Mulums they can go do it them selves without the abuse of our NON RELIGIOUS ARMY!

Because the Christian extremists in the U.S. government see themselves as "GOD'S people" and "on the good side" they believe all they do is "for the greater good" and "divine"! They are not and there extremism is a plague on an already tainted church. They are just hate mongers thriving to kill all Muslims who will not convert. This forces the people who disagree and being alienated as human scum to fight back... Not with money or political power, with all that they have left... Their lives. I have to admire the way they refuse to roll over, the way they give their life for what they believe in! They do not sit in the mud blaming themselves! They stand up and say you want me dead? You want me gone? Then I will take as many of my enemies as I can, well I understand and respect that. It is unfortunate when a person thinks the general public is the enemy. How does that happen... I think it is probably the result of unfriendly interaction. If every where a person goes they are rejected or "pushed away" and not embraced a general contempt for people in general develops.

I always say that everyone that pays taxes is responsible for the bombs that their money buys. Not being innocent or being reasonable are far different in my book then being an enemy. I think back to the rash of school shootings here in the USA. The way alienated school children shoot classmates randomly. It looks to me like a similar problem. When you alienate people to this extent you have to expect them to lash out.

We must embrace people, not shove Jesus, Mohammad, Buddha in there face... Look at all we have in common. Embrace our humanity, and set aside our credence.

We must all work together to get the Christian, warmonger, extremists out of office! Democracy says we have to do the will of the majority... Well it seems the majority of this county are blood thirsty Christian extremist who wish to KILL every non-Christian in the world.

I wonder what Generation Columbine will do when they can't make a living? I wonder if they will roll over the way my generation has? I wonder how meany people feel like America has turned its back on them? I wonder when we will stand up and say we have had enough of this prison based, corporate, slave based country we call free.

Photos of Chicago I have nothing left to say... Eventually everyone who is alive will be dead... If is not a matter of if you will die, but what you will die for. Will you die for cancer research or to free humanity from the clutches of Corporatism and Slavery? Truly the this planet probably makes little to no difference at all in the universe. My life is irrelevant and so is this planet. Like that song says "All we are is dust in the wind". Time is Almighty God... We are a race of slaves to Corporatism and Sociopath system of democracy. A system where no one is responsible for unreasonable laws, and the rich are protected from the poor by a belief that ones circumstances are there own fault. They are not.

If you want to say "It is the Muslims", "It is the Mexicans", or the Christians... No it is a system that encourages a Master(Corporation) Slave(worker) relationship. We need a a change of guard! We need a Dictator with a hart and soul to slay the beast of corporate America, to free the people caught up in the unethically American legal system. We need to be able to own land free and clear, and not have to worry about illegal searches and secures or corrupt police. We need the reboot democracy here in America not spread the plague of slavery and Corporatism all around the world!

Journal Entry <-12th-{ }-6005 AL->9:48 AM CST

The Holy See? To the seven, Go your ways, and pour out the vials of the wrath upon the earth.

To the question, "Could this have turned out definitely?"

We have a world population problem, and some of us have been chosen to be eradicated. In order to find out if you have been selected for eradication ask yourself one question.

Can you find a job that pays for the life you want? If you say no then you are trash and the world does not want you.

Why do some people have some much and others have so little?

Because some people have been selected by the collective as superior, others have been selected as worthless wastes of life.

I woke up one day and realized I was a worthless waste of life and it was clear to me that my wife and child did not want me, the world did not want me, and my life had become a berdon to even me. It hurt my feelings to realize that the world did not want me, humanity did not care if I lived or died... In fact the court system seemed to want to destroy me, to force me into submission, or suicide... So I drenched self in the innocent blood and went to court... Dripping in blood (Blood makes good hair jell). It was Monday October 9th of 2000, and it turned out is was also Columbus Day, the court house was closed. I was not about to go home, not that I had a home to go to... So I went down town, to Chicago.

To express my rage, to swear the annihilation on the systems that allowed my daughter to be taken from me. To raise my fist to the beast that destroyed my family and threatened to destroy me. Swore to myself that I would find a way to change the world! That I would find a way to bring power back to the people and away from the courts. Those that judge me... Be judged, those that seek to destroy me...

Live threw my hell. Because I am just one person, just one of over 6 billion. Just one person who stopped caring about myself, my life, and set out to "fixed the world". I was blinded with rage and saw the world as mine, as a small child that lashed out at a parent. I did not see all I had in common with the earth, I am one of countless humans, the earth is just one of countless planets. It does not matter to the world if I live or die... It does not matter to the universe if the earth lives or dies.. OR DOES IT?

The point is, if you do not force the world to obey you... To respect you then the world will enslave you and at the end of the day you will be less then a passing thought in a world turned in on itself. You are not going to go to heaven for being a good slave! Jesus... Pay attention.

The chosen people are the people that don't die. The people that survive coming global holocaust. Who will survive? The people that have immunity. Or if the Diplomat is detained humanity will eventually be wiped out with the nuclear option. Make war with the beast, no one is innocent. Those of you who seek to distroy me... will only make me stronger. I feed on resistance. That is why I want to end social assistance, force people to fight. Force people to stand of fall, live or die. Raise our swords to the beast and have no mercy for illusion of kind faces portrayed by the beast. When you have nothing to lose, you have everything to gain that is when the world and all humanity is at your mercy lives only because you have allowed them to live. Breath only because we have allowed you to continue to breath.
When all humanity is dead no one will cry anymore, not for me or you or the mistakes we have made. I am so angry I see the walls shake... Will I walk into court once again drenched in blood? No not this time...

See a row of light outside, the desk of a man that knew to much, never was is or will be a bringer of enlightenment because we are past trying to explain.
You understand or you do not. One single thought that traveled the length of the universe. One single thought that meant nothing. When people have no hope, they have nothing to lose.

*****

So the beast made war with me... I am no saint I stand tall in my dedication to humanity! To make war with the beast. For all humanity must know that Wal-Mart, Mc Donalds, Coca-cola, halburin are the enemy. Not the people of this world, but the beasts we have created the governments that have spun out of control. I am sorry that people die. But you sick F#ckin people need to note that the American lead genocide has taken no less then 30,000 civilians and the total annihilated Middle Eastern could top the death toll of the tsunami. I am sorry the London civilians were wrongly targeted...
Wake up this is a weekly civilian death count in Iraq.

Your under 100 people died today in the supposed terrorist attracts, do you think that makes it ok to go kill another 30,000 Middle Eastern civilians? Do you not think they go home at night and pray for there loved ones that America has taken? Now you are saying NUKE them! WAKE UP! End the violence on both sides. If America took your children you would be angry too. Stop thinking about revenge and start thinking about an apology and withdraw.

You should investigate a Bush Administration link to this disaster they had the most to gain.

As I turn away still glares at me in the mirror, my lids closed. I can not lay still... I can not, not fight. In one thousand years will you still hear my words echo threw the organic universe? I am lucky, I know that. I also know that a lot of people out their are not so lucky. Yes I want you to buy my book... No that is not all this is about.

Rain is snow that melted and what is dead does not miss life. Shiny stars, medals, and ribbons to honor what was, what is, and what could be. Shark tank, lava, and the Catcher in the rye... The more you accomplish the more trivial it all seems.

The virus called the Diplomat, no one answered... I guess it turned out they where already dead. So was Bethany and Samuel, so was Reggy and Beth. We all have our time and only the living are left to morn.

Can one man matter, can one man can change the course of humanity?

NO! It is systems upon systems, there are billions of people out there and all of them are pissed at someone... Most people want to fix the problems with the systems that lead to the incidences that made them upset. It is never "I" person. It is time, or it is not. You are ready and willing to fight for mankind or you are not. "Be hot or cold, if you are lukewarm, I will spew you out of My mouth." unnamed quote.

Send word to maldore that the vision has been received. Tell the children that no one in America cares if they live or die. Go to the top of the hill and scream out that the United States loose of 3,000 civilians matter, and the loose of the tens of thousands of middle eastern civilians do not. Go tell them that US children fight with honor for oil, Halliburton, Wal-Mart and to reap souls for the "Christian god". That most Americans think the genocide in the middle east is "acceptable". It is not a joke to call yourself Al Qaeda. When I go to sleep at night I know that I do my best to think of mankind...

What is America?

America is people who stand up for what they believe in.

As an American I would fight to the death to defend personal freedom, from corporations, from corrupted politicians, from and any enemy foreign or domestic who seeks to take away our freedom. I believe it is the responsibility of every American to own fully automatic assault rifles and anti-aircraft weapons. I believe the US government is out of control, I believe we the people of America must arm ourselves for the coming war. China sees that WE HAVE NOT DEFENCE AGAINST THEM, and the United States government may decide to expand its terrorist propaganda against freedom, we must be ready, we must be armed, and we must be ready to die... That is what America means to me. If disagreeing with the White house makes me a Terrorist... Call me Al Qaeda! I will not play dead against this government or any other that seeks to rob me of my freedom and enslave me for unfair wages. I am ready... I am ready to die, because I refuse to be your slave. Communist America started this war... It's on. You could have let me be, you could have minded your own business, YOU WANT TO DEHUMANIZE ME! I do not hold anyone responsible for this, but we must fix the system, or we must destroy it and rebuild it around FREEDOM, I believe America can be fixed, and if it can not I believe America must be repatriated.,

NOT in the propaganda of America is freedom! In real freedom, the kind that doesn't have property tax. The kind that does not censor the media. America for the Americans, not the corporations, or the blue bloods... For regular people, that is the America I was brought up to believe in. The America where everyday people live and die the way they choose, not the way they have to. Property Tax is Communism! I hate what we are allowing to be done to this country. People say if "Love it or leave it" well you are sheep with wool over your eyes. This is my county and my assessors trace back to the first people to steal land from the Native Americans. So don't give me your everything is fine you are imagining a problem... Or it is unpatriotic to be angry with your government, no I did not ask to be American, but I am! America will be fixed, even if you never see the problem, we are working on fixing it. What I need from you, I need you personally to start arming for WAR.

I pity the people that can not see past the flag to see who is waving it. I pity the people that die and never truly understand who or what they were fighting for. America is not Wal-Mart! America is FREEDOM is say this. America is freedom to stockpile armies. America is freedom to repatriate the county if it becomes necessary.

Democracy leaves not one to blame, democracy has no conscience, and I think democracy has become criminally insane "Corporatism".

Do not be a sheep in a slaughter house.
P.S. the number of Prisoners in the U.S. (and abroad) is a Crime against Humanity!

We need to start calling a Spade a Spade... Look at the numbers, this is Genocide! The people fighting are fighting for their lives and against the destruction of their culture. 9-11 it is time to take a good look at the numbers... 3,000 "innocent" civilians died, well that seemed like a lot of people, but it is nothing when compared to what the United States has done. It makes me sick to see people displaying those people's names without their consent... As a justification for Genocide! 9-11 happened so hail (US's) Hitler (George W. Bush).

You know what the stupidest thing I hear is... "They started it" WHO! WHO started this? A friend of the president's family who worked for the US CIA. GET OUT OF THE MIDDLE EAST! NOW! STOP MISUSING AMERICA'S TROOPS! YOU SHOULD SUPPORT OUR TROOPS AND STOP FORCING THEM TO DIE FOR PRIVATE INTERESTS AND GENOCIDE. THIS IS NOT WHAT THEY SIGNED UP FOR!

I am beyond frustrated... Why would I test the freedoms we are promised? Why would I get "in the face" of people who have no interest in what I have to say? Is it because I HAVE NOTHING TO LOSE

I did not ask to be HUMAN I just am.
I did not ask to be an AMERICAN...

So when I say I HATE what this country is becoming... I am talking about out of control systems, not people. I believe that all people are basically good. When you reward people for divorce with child support you destroy families. We must encourage families to work threw problems.

Frankly I think that America is becoming a female dominated country. What's next a female dominated world? Does humanity even need men at all? No, not any more. Humanity could easily thrive without even one male. Sad... I feel that this child support is just a step in the eventual elimination of men altogether. Men are being systematical abused... Who knew that woman being able to vote was such a horrible idea.

What was wrong with Men working and woman staying home with the children?
What is wrong old fashioned family structures?
It is evolution of culture, but evolution to what?

We just keep adding more and more laws and rules... For how long can we still consider this freedom, how long will we buy the lies?

I do appreciate people doing what they feel is right, it is in the lack of personal reasonability we run into problems.

The fact that if you contribute to a system you feel is wrong... Then you are responsible regardless of who told you to do it, or why. If you do not feel right about something do not do it. The neurokinetic system called Anti-Christ is thriving, truly Al Qaeda is dream for the powerless provided by intelligence... For the purpose of bringing hope to the possibility of reestablishing a new better world for humanity (not for a few people) FOR ALL PEOPLE now and into the future.

As the current world leader of Al Qaeda I can assure you this is true.

Working at Mc Donald's or Wal-Mart..... I would rather be dead. That's ok Mc Donald's will not hire me and I run Al Qaeda...

In this chess game I am only a Pawn... The truth is that this complicated game we play has been predetermined by our genetic makeup. You like me, are running a program. Our programs are controlled by larger systems.

All I hear from the big wigs is I DON'T KNOW HOW TO USE A COMPUTER. I know that no one is planning to kill the president I am sure a lot of Americans want to, I also know that this sick game of Allah vs God, Even thou I have seen the face of god (Allah) it is Wal-Mart... Corporatism is Darwin's God (Allah), because it is an organism adapting to it's environment, and the survival of the fittest at a higher level. It is NOW in this day becoming clear that Wal-Mart is a death machine. Spreading poverty and devastation as it levels the earth and rises from the earth as a Temple to our fate.

So I say "Support Al Qaeda"... Even throw they are only smoke and mirrors, because we are being commissioned from the DHS or was it the UN to do so... Because "People" should not except corporatism.

Corporatism is a tyrant... Kings have mercy... Conglomerate corporations like democracy DO NOT! Any guilt is erased with a 'It is not my fault', 'it is not my responsibility', 'what can I do' mentality of majority rule based on efficacy not humanity.

We need to 'reformat' Democratic America so that is once again run like a FAMILY not a business.

The beast is a reference to humanities true nature... Dirty, violent, self serving... Christ is a reference to people who care... What happens to them? They are destroyed. We that are AntiChrist do not care to be nice... It does not matter if history remembers us a "Good or Bad"... What matters is that "America the Family" is running things. That no king would like to see his brother cold and on the street or in prison. We run the courtly like that, like every human is our family (all races). We remove the warlords, and the machines from power. I do not think that virus incident today was an accident I think it was a warning.

You have to remember that at every corner of every aspect of the machine god(allah) is a human life... When the time comes people will fight for survival, some have to fight now... Some will die fighting off old age or cancer the choice is simple... Give you life in the struggle to save humanity or die a horrible death as the machine god (Allah) keeps you alive until the last possible breath regardless of what your life has become.

I have made the decision to do what I can to stand up for the future of humanity.

Memes.org I will be disappointed if they really shut down.

When we planted this we knew what would grow. When we planted this... Code. Creed supremacy? Atheistic rule? It has been a failure to humanity. Racial supremacy? It is wrong to promote, you tell me you don't know that every color and creed has its base and its pinnacle in every aspect, the race game is for fragmentation of the resistance. What we need to do is concentrate on unity against the machine... We need to work together if we want mankind to survive, Dell, Wal-Mart, Mc Donald's, and the governments that harbor these terrorist organizations to be repatriated to a "Family" We all rise or fall together. We to do not force our brother into slave labor, and force our sister to leave her children so she too can be a slave to the corporate beast that has been given rise by peoples inability to govern them selves.

Trickle up economics... We need to pay people more, so that they can buy more, so that more people have jobs... ? What ever ... So I have lashed out at my fellow man, I feel I have good reason. It does not free you from your part of what WE have allowed the United States to become. I believe that our system of government could be beyond repair. This does not mean I have given up on America it just means I fear that revolution is the only hope for US now. I will not sit ideally by and wait for a revolution to come to me! I will go out now and I will stand up for myself and every one else that is living paycheck to paycheck.

I need your help to fight the beast. I need your support to win this battle... The battle to save US from ourselves. The battle to have a more equal world for all people. The battle for small business, human rights, and dignity. The battle against the false Gods, and soulless enterprises that plague this earth.

Problem: Huge corporations get lower prices because they buy in bulk. This makes it impossible for small business to compete.

Solution: Increase taxes on large businesses and reduce or even eliminate taxes on small businesses.

Problem: Working class people have a much harder time paying bills than in years past.

Solution: Raise minimum wage to a rate that can support a family.

Comment: In the past one family member could make enough money to support a family, now it often takes two people working over 40 hours a week each to support a home! The future looks far more bleak for the working class especially since most of the working poor blame themselves for their poverty instead of looking at the bigger picture and blaming the real culprits.

I can honestly say I was very impressed with the effectiveness of the Landmark Training, Landmark Forum the introduction to Landmark Education. This program clearly helps people with the breakthroughs they are looking for. I am glad I went to see what the Landmark Cult is all about.

What I did not like about the forum was that it in my opinion breed complacency.

In my opinion the number one thought being sold is "nothings wrong". There is nothing you can do about what is wrong with "US" because there is nothing wrong with us. Can someone point out to me why I might not like that message. You may as well say "You are a sheep, go enjoy your being a sheep and if the farmer is slaughtering some of the other sheep there is nothing wrong with that... Your just a sheep what could you possibly do about it! So just be and let it be. It is a struggle you will lose and you never needed to fight... Just be happy and productive.

The sheep eat it up.

I would love to see the world change without blood shed. I am not making fun of that thought, I just do not see any other way.

FACT: If everyone went "on strike" stopped paying taxes to the government, all the overly rich people gave away most their money, all corporations sizes where limited, everyone loved everyone we would not need to intentionally give rise to an Cruel and Destructive Antichrist Pinnacle that will give a clean slate to rebuild a New Dawn.

I am not the final Antichrist, but we can be. We rule the world and the lesser universe. I am not your God... You are your own god. Together we rule. Together we are unstoppable. I hope this helps you to see where I have gone wrong. Pain makes you stronger to a point. Non of that matters, what matters is that you have one life to live and if you choose to be complacent we will see you as a contribute to a terrorist organization we control called DHS (Department of Homeland Security). All So-Called extremists fight for us. We are bigger then all the government agencies combined, we are the UNCIA. You are already a member (unless you are CIA). AntiChrist cx has sold four copies its first three months in print. I guess I should have wrote a book about how great is to be an artist or the bright side to being a nihilist. Maybe book about love with a nice happy ending. How about a book about a serial killer that kills because he likes the way people twitch when they die.

The Undumfediums will eat your brain but do not fear the Shinerks they are no threat.

My first website was on AOL and no one ever whet to it. Not a single person as far as I know. Now look at me. (This month I will have more then a million page views). So I try and look at it like that. I very much appreciate those that have bought a copy of my book. Although I am slightly depressed I did not sell my target of 10 copies... I guess I will just look up at the stars and remember that we are all one being if my idea is rejected by the collective that is just the way it is. I have no choice but to be who I am, but you have the choice to ignore me. My neurokinetic essence dies. You can support me, think with me, and allow my neurokinetic essence to thrive (neurokinetic energy, food for thought?).

I try so hard to be the best I can be at everything I do. I try so hard to improve the world around me. I am powerless. It is you that has the power. It is you that really can change the world. I just sit here and complain. No one will pay me what I need to survive off my art. That I can't sell my book, or find a career doing something that does not make me feel like I am contributing to everything I hate about this world.

Am I not good enough? Shouldn't I be upset and looking fix what I hate about this world? Even if I wanted to work at Wal-Mart I can't even get a job there. What happened to the hippy communes. Why can't I be an expatriate? Mexico was so beautiful and I had so few cares back then. I hate what America has become and I am even more afraid of what America will be like tomorrow. Maybe all I am doing is complaining, but at least I am not ignoring the problems. At least I stand up for what I believe in. I believe this world could be a better place for all people, not just a few. I am just one person no one else seems to think there is a solvable problem. There is a solution. WE CAN DO IT!

Christianity breeds weakness, and complacency. Christians are sheep. That is why the poorer and more dangerous the neighborhoods the more Christians you will find. Prying for life to improve, praying for gangs, and drugs to disappear. In the wealthier neighborhoods Christian structures are far nicer and farther spread out. In the extremely nice neighborhoods you will even find a few synagogs.

Most religions breed complacency. We the people of the world can not afford to be complacent. To sit ideally by as the divide between rich and poor grows. We can not afford to watch as corporations use oil for blood sport. We awakening to the reality of what the churches have become! Tool for the powerfully to keep the sheep in the pasture. To stop the strong from achieving power. We will retake the world, I will lead the way. Those who listen to me and fight with their soul for what they know is right will be rewarded once we have come to power.

Support me and together we will build a better future for our families, ourselves, and future generations!

I the world I see no one is innocent. We all share the blame for the world in its current form. Life will always be unfair but we allow it to be this unequal. Like sheep we graze our pastures without question. We must stand and demand equality. We must raise our arms and demand equality and elimination of class structure. So we can all have and opportunity to work at a job with a real future. So that we all have the opportunity to thrive, so that our children do not have to struggle even harder then we have had to struggle. So that we can take pride in our lives and our livelihood. To stand a say we will no longer be a slaves to bosses that do not know our names. We will no longer work hard for corporations that have no remorse for the lives they destroy. We will not be tools for the billionaires that have no respect for the common people, we will watch you fall like so many false gods before you. Life is short and I will make it my life goal to bring real opportunity back to everyday people that opportunity will be paid for in the blood of the false gods that snub their noses at this concept. How dare you look down at me! How dare you treat me with such utter lack of respect. You will know my name when it is burned into your flesh and you cry for mercy but there will be no mercy and people that you have demeaned, the people that you have belittled will sing songs of victory as your misappropriated wealth is returned to the common people and the temples you have built to lure the sheep away from the good people of this world will be burned to the ground.

I the world I see once again it will be one world truly of the people for the people as the lifeless bodies of the false gods hang from the towers to warn the world never again to allow such greed and such unmistakable evil to rule.

From the window I see the world go bye. I can see but I can not move. Because I am not real, I am just a lifeless plastic replica of a person... Behind me in the shadow, somehow I can see someone standing looking at me with anger and holding a butcher knife. I can not turn my head, I can not move, because I am just a reflection in a window nothing more then a plastic doll...

To the Gods among humanity, the neo-deities, and our corporate masters. You that have thrived to watch others fall. You that hold the burden of wealth allocation, and represent the rise and fall of stars on earth. You are the modern Gods, for that I give you respect. The blood of innocent people shed for oil or for Jihad is also your responsibility. When the less fortunate decide they should not be less fortunate anymore then who will they blame? Who will be the scapegoats when victims of the Wal-Mart economy rise up? When we stop protesting and start taking the world back! Free world for the people, not "click-it or Ticket-Christian American world". True freedom for all people. Corporations are buying American troops, American booms, to fight for our "Corporatism" system. I have faith in you and all the people of the world that together we will tame the beasts that enslave us. Rise up a freer more peacefully people united in goal of wealth equalization, and cultural understanding.

For every person with a Billion dollars, a 1,000 people could have a million.
If 20 billionaires wealth reallocated would result in 20,000 or 30,000 people with a million dollars each.
20,000 or 30,000 people just like me, just like underpaid conglomerate employees, just like the homeless people begging for your change. 30,000 millionaires could be made from 20 billionaires.
That is just the way it is. Wealth is far to consternated in the world today.

So many people of the world would rather kill themselves then actually try use their life to fix the world. So many people sulk in self pity, bathe in regret, so meany people that will wake up stop blaming themselves and change the world for the future of humanity and the good of all mankind.

The 706.2 Billion Dollars held by 222 people could make 706,200 people Millionaires.

I am sick of being so deeply in dept. I am sick of being underpaid, and unappreciated. I am sick of not having the money or support to accomplish my goals...

What if I am just a small section of an end track of a massive digestive system. What if that was all I am... What if every thing I experience is imaginary I am just Gods "A$$ hole". God in that case being an eating breathing organic creature, and all humanity being cells that make up a single being. Just a thought I had once somewhere between a dream, a nightmare, and a vision.

I guess I would just continue to exist as I was programmed to exist.

My entire life can be summed up to an incredibly sharp Cutco knife that has "Remember" engraved into it and an idea that if their are Gods they are Children to the universe. That no objective is out or reach and no idea is impossible.

In my unconscious state I stumbled threw dreams I had forgotten I had. Dreams of lost love that ended bittersweet. Dreams of betrayal, dreams of love and lies. Times that I played the fool and ended up alone and broken. There in the field alone, when you promised to meet me... There where I stood all alone waiting and you never came. Your absence hurt the worst but that pain was bittersweet. As if the pain is all I was able to truly feel. I have never been more then a phone call away. You never called, at least not to say hi. In my dream you were wading in a pool with your family. You looked into my hurt eyes and said, "I can't handle you in large amounts, that is why I didn't show up". I excepted that. Some things are better as dreams, as memories, in this bittersweet reality.

All of this a stone throw away from the fortress my friends and I had built in forest for hell of it, for shelter, and for protection.

All of this and the static buzzes and sparkles in the background like demons that are angels under dark orders with no choice but to listen. I have my orders, you have your orders, those above you have their orders, those in charge have their orders handed down from the collective. The collective has its orders, handed down from genetic code and environmental factors, all of that is controlled by past environmental factors that built the code that now controls the worlds evolution into machinehood.

You are my greener pastures, beside the weeping willows in the valley of existence, in the spring time of my life... All-ways love, and in the background static and fear.

The universe dances around us to tribal beat as we are herald threw oblivion toured our impending doom. As if any of it matters. So let us live by fairy tales where every life has meaning, we all have the ability to be immortal, We all reach enlightenment, and eventually we will all find peace within ourselves and within our place in the universe.

Then I suffocated almost crushed in a shallow grave of sand that I was not quite strong enough to escape from. One grain of sand, seems so harmless... Again and again I was on the bed of sand enjoying the sand... Again and again the sand coved me and only once was I saved. Not the first time or the last and never because I had the power save myself, I did not. That once someone reached down just in time to pull me away from the impending burial, it felt good. Note to people interested in painting the streets with my blood.

Do you really want to make me that much more famous?

Note to CIA... Agency is being weakened rapidly, being killed. I hope the UN will be more efficient as a counterbalance to the American regime. It was the CIA's job to prevent the administration from ignoring the good of the country and spitting on the minorities.

It was the CIA's job to counterbalance the power of the presidents cabinet. Look into where their interests lie. Your failure to stop this administration is grounds enough to give the United Nations authorization for counter attack. International Intelligence is looking for a way to destroy the systems that gave power to the bush administration... They are not just angry with the Bush Administration. We the people of the World will not stand for this. The CIA should never have allowed the compromise of CIA threw the homeland security. This next move by the President will eliminate the power of the CIA to protect the American people from its leaders. How could we let this happen? Now we have to depend on UNCIA to do the Job of the CIA. Heavy consideration to deap cover againts for UNCIA reassignment. You do not have to betray youself. I know this is not what you signed on for, you do have a choice. Officials may loose "Proof of your involvement"... burning the Security, trust, and honor... Of success. The misery and disgrace of failure.

What is the goal?

Who is going to have the final word.

I want to help build the monument. Dedicated to David Royal Dolton, the original internet Antichrist(Christ).

We are all the same, one people, one mind. The true insanity is working to build something you don't believe in.

As a Qasi-Nihilist and an Annihilist, I do not live in the Here and Now. I live into future.

As a bird flies to its nest with twigs, wire, and straw, does it know why it makes a nest?

As a spider draws its web, does it think it has a choice? Does it waste time considering alternatives?

As those bugs die trapped in the spiders web do they feel uforia? Do they see the light perhaps feeling of induced utopia?

David hoped they did and even suggested they even enjoyed dying.

What is it about life that makes it worth it for me?

You could be lead to believe that Nihilism is depressing religion, it can be. What makes life worth living is a little bit different for everyone, for me what makes life worth living is the wonder and curiosity. I live to learn as I learn to live. Will to power the power of change for the destination of the reckoning. Nothing can save me. I am already dead, I live on threw you... Remember me, I will help you to succeed.

I know the life that was and is, the life that could be and the creatures that feed on dreams. Those things that live all around us beyond our shallow existence. Those things that were never born, never live, and for that reason can never die... Some how circle like a vapuric fog over the souls of our slave race. I do fear you... I embrace you. This is why you are here, it is in your blood, it is who you are... The nature of the lesser universe. When you die you will die for what have come to do, or you will slowly die a broken person and you grow weary and decrepit.

The golden years? Truly, there is know way to know... Systems you serve from the day you are born until the day you die. This protocol called Antichrist is based on the will to power. Merciless, hateful, bitter, resentfully, will to overpower and annihilate. This is the destiny of the Antichrist Protocol Invoked.

On a lighter note fall into winter... I will soon be another year older... Where does time go?

A thousand years after my death threw the mirror, threw space, can you see me... How imperfect and weak I was. How strong you have made me, for your own intents and purposes. This is the nature of 'this' beast. This this is the basic truth the holy see of the lesser universe. Walk with me.

From the first day to the last this is a war of more than just genomes susceptibility to neurokinetic viruses, also the ability work within the hive. Neurokinetic protocols thrive for a reason. Those that assimilate into a bad system are more likely to survive and flourish than those who resist or attempt to change the hive mind. Independent mind can be a master mind to a new hive or it can be cast out eventually to oblivion. This is true on the physical and neurokinetic level. The more page views on this site for a particular page or section the more time I spend on that section. Some of this site is built on demand and some is built for posterity.

Those organic or physical systems that attempt to disrupt the Antichrist protocol will be destroyed, along with any directly linked systems or genome. (When you kill a weed you must also destroy and seeds or pollen.) The systems must be judged and the contributors must be held accountable. The life of one could doom the survival of our species.

Why is it that the “New World” turned out to be far more powerful and innovative than the old world? Religion is often a good judge of character, more important than where one ends up is how they got there.

Some are born Christian and Die Christian with little consideration of why, I have trouble respecting that. Others are born a particular faith and end with a different one, I respect that. Some are born into a religion look into what they choose to believe, and then end up back where they started, I respect that also.

If everyone on earth made a little box tiny box filled with genetic material, and basic organic "seeds". Then they were all loaded onto a rocket and shot into space every year and every box traveled in a different direction possibly aimed at a particular set of stars. It would be like pollen. Eventually some of those 6,000,000,000 will land on suitable host planets, some may land on already occupied planets.

From the first big bang to the last... From beyond the edge of the known Universe, where life lives outside the seasons of the universe, or once did. From the future we can watch the past, as the collective intelligence of our world develops exponentially. We are still a slave race we are still only human .

So I do appreciate your visit. Your invitation to congregate and pray with you. Truly I do appreciate the offer, and hope that you

As for the terrorist propaganda tactics such as spreading fear of eternal damnation. What can I say terrorism works, fear is one of the most powerfully tools on the philological battle front, false hope is also effective.

Journal Entry

November 19th 6004 CE 1:31 AM CST

I had vision of a nerve cell connected and almost surrounded in a nano mechanical shell. Sort of like a nerve cell in any case a nano mechanical organic multifunctional thing.

Humanity itself on a smaller scale. Organic core to electrical, mechanical, and computer shell. In itself the organic life was almost shapeless... No need for arms, legs, or even a head, sort of a boneless flesh bag of nerve tissue connected to a robot exoskeleton.

The robots... Like something out of the matrix, sort of everywhere part of everything. Every molecule ordered with a machine, no disorder, no chaos, no carbon based life, no nature as we know it, no planet as we know it, every molecule in active use for a purpose. The purpose of the nano-mechanical living planet eventually after every molecule is in perfect order becomes survival. The purpose changes from seeking order to devouring planets, suns, entire galaxies. Peace and Love? It is an ideal that makes humanity beautiful, even if every person is capable of loving and worked toward peace... Systems still battle, competitions, and in the end everything we do is war. Battle to survive and excel in the slave world, blood feud for stronger wiser children, and systems are in place to poison and destroy the weak. Systems are in place to destroy the dangerously intelligent, propaganda to make the masses suppress and destroy the strong independent minded.

It is all very complicated.

I tend not to like gold jewelry. Gold is a better conductor than most metals, gold and silver are very valuable for electronics, silver is corrosive. This makes gold quite possibly the most valuable metal in the universe.

What made people like gold in the first place? Because it is shiny and easy to shape at low temperatures? Most likely just a coincidence but on the other hand Earth could be a gold mine for an electronic based civilization elsewhere... just a thought.

What if we were a slave race to a more evolved species?

What would have made them pack up and leave? Maybe they found out how to change solid matter into subatomic particles or even pure energy, and then back into any element they want. According to the theory of Conservation of Energy no matter how much energy it takes to transform matter, that energy is not lost. Theoretically... Then again I do not believe that the Conservation of energy theory is completely correct and if it is eventually every atom and all energy in the universe will become waves and dissipate off into oblivion.

The universe would look like a star, if you were far enough away. One day that star will burn out. Even if it is a billion big bang cycles away. The only way that the universe could have a different fate is if energy can be created and destroyed. I tend to think it is possible, I tend to think anything is possible. One day a way to not just generate electricity, but to produce it. Once a way is found to do that entire galaxies could be created in the depths of the grand abyss.

For immortality to be possible

Energy must be created.

Matter must be manipulated into pure energy and back. (True Alchemy)

Only if it is possible to do those two things will the universe continue to exist forever.

Otherwise the presence of matter in the universe will become history as it is used as food for machines, transformed into energy, and that energy will dissipate as waves into the abyss. In the end only machines will exist, and they will eat each other and eventually themselves.

I believe in the energy can be created and a way will be found to increase the mass of the universe.

One world, one people. Peace is patriotic... All so true.

Stopped into Front Porch for open mic night. Reminds me of days back when things went wrong with far less consequence. A place where every day people are the stars. A reminder of everything I love about life, about people. Truly one of my favorite places in the world. It is here that we come to understand our selves and each other, friends are made, people come together to share their talent and hopes. Some who come and preform are famous, some will be famous but all share passion, inspiration and all will be remembered.

One small town weekly event that truly has a positive effect on the entire city. People leave there and go out and try to better themselves, to archive more, learn more, to create something new. To difficult for corporate "bottom line feeders" to truly be involved with the kind of energy and love needed to forget the bottom line... Be involved in something that makes people come together and grow as people, as a community, as artists. There has to be profit to survive but the art and community are more impotent then large profits.

Just when I had almost forgotten all the good in the world. The hope and passion not for finical gain... For the art, to make a statement. To be known and to inspire.

It does often bother me that I am not proud of my book. I am not proud of this web site. I do not mention it, I do not read from it. Despite the fact that I published it so you can read it, in a way it bothers me that you do. If you chose to read this you too have probably been overcome with anger, lost all faith in humanity, giving up all your mundane hopes, and lost the desire for material possessions. Still you live on, unable to die, unwilling to try to succeed at anything this pointless monoamine existence tries to bribe you with. So you look to destruction, to pinnacle of destructive power... To the one person who can make this world beautiful and pure once again. The one person who can stop Wal-Mart, SBC, Microsoft, Kraft... The one person who can bring humanity a new dawn and buy mankind a little extra time in the universe. The Antichrist is not truly evil, the antichrist is redemption and rebirth, it is hard for most to see that now but if you convince 7 people tomorrow to fallow the Antichrist and those 7 people each convince 7 more each the following day... Within twelve days everyone on earth would fallow the antichrist (Theoretically 13,841,287,201 people our current population is just over 6,000,000,000).

I truly need you to buy my book, and I need you to convince seven other people to buy my book... Gotta have money if you want to do anything productive (or counter productive) in this world.

As the sun set on humanity it was written that one human would be the Judge of all humanity. It was written that that person would choose the living and the dead. So shall that day unfold upon your generation?

You have come to take my soul? To ravage threw my thoughts and take what I have leaned as you pick and chose what is lunacy, and what is wisdom. What you understand and what you will come to know but for now misunderstand. This is no bible!

This is nothing to most, underlying rebellion, bitter blood sweet of life itself. Was there ever a choice? At some point did I take a turn down the path to enlightenment and ignore the signs that said "Warning enlightenment is counterproductive to the evolution of our system". I am not sure there was ever a choice. You are who you are, as I am. Ever so small number of people that call themselves Antichrist, those numbers will grow. Our blood sweet has amplified the neurokinetic wave of Annihilation. That the Christians will see their Christ, and it will be the last thing they see before they awaken in the hell they wished on others? Judgment has been handed down Christianity is evil in the eyes of god?

I know the will of God!
I know the will of Jesus!
Ya sure you do.

Fire of hell on earth does shine from the desperation of the situation on earth. This is the pinnacle of all that has been to this moment everything we have thought and built all that we have leaned. To be so advanced is our culture, we have changed very little. That the slaves of pharaoh took pride in their work as do we. That a savior will free the slaves? Destroy the system, and equalize humanity. No more paper trails... Digital files. A matrix of who you are to the god of our world to the corporate deities. Set a blaze to your soul, to your existence? What a horrible way to die or in this case not die. Praise to you... Your pain is our pain, is the world's pain.

I think of you, I talk of you, I will help you succeed, and I need nothing in return except your faith and support. In the end we will be nothing more than food for those creatures that feed on dead. There is no real way to prove to you that I exist. There is no real way to prove anyone exists out side of your own head. No way to know if this is a dream within a dream and I am just a thought you considered having. If I am something more, something real beyond your thoughts and consciousness...

An epiphany that "I" may be tangible. That we are all the same... A rat is a rat there are no "good rats" and "bad rats".

Just different ways of exhibiting variable species aspects.

We love nature when we find it we love to destroy it. We find a tree, we make a tree house. We find dry wood, we make a fire. We see a deer, we shoot it. This is our nature. To destroy what we love most. Our presence sucks the life out of this planet, we find beauty and we turn it to cold steel and cement. We are one and the same. Our life force, humanities life force...

1. We are destroying this planet just like we will destroy many others as the virus of humanity spreads.

2. This planet is a incubation biosphere and we are almost ready to "hatch" and go out into the universe to be introduced to our extended family.

or

3. Life is a fluke that has never happened before and will never happen again if we do not find a way to spread life throu out the universe.

Did I forget a possibility, God created us because he needed someone to be worshiped by, so go to church or be tortured forever! To stupid to mention? The God protocol has its place and purpose just like every other protocol.

Terrorism works, the church has been using it for thousands of years and if you don't believe that then you will go to hell! It has been written.

Or reverse-terrorism... If you do what I tell you, you will go to "good" kingdom in the sky where you will feast on the blood and mussels of animals with a dead carpenter that likes to be cannibalized.

Click hmmm... I am turning a new leaf. I am going to try and be more positive... Not just positive about the irrelevance of our existence but positive about what I have accomplished and still have yet to accomplish.

I am alive and well...

The blink of an eye that is our lives. The mental processes that make up who we are and who we will be. What chose do I have but to be me... None. This is the lottery of existence. I could have been a wolf, lion, or ameba. I could have spent my existence at any time in any form and I would still be me, not because I have chosen to be... Because I am. Just like you, just like every life that is. I am at peace with myself and my life on this day at this moment, I hope you are too.

I am human the slave spices of planet earth. I am also fortunate enough to know I am a slave. Complexity of systems upon systems, evolution of our world into what will soon be a Galactic Empire. I know I will not be around to see the conquests of humanity or the eventual downfall of our spices, I hope some one out there is listening to me now thousands of years after I have written this.

Not because it is good, but because this is my mortality, with you my immortality. That I am live still because you are reading this. I exist because because of you. Dreams of Demons that should have been saints, fears that should be assperations, but do you dream of me anymore?

Am I a saint that saves you from the fires of hell from an existance you can not escape? or am a shaddow stalks your fragal exsistance?

This is the world I see from inside my drywall prison. The world I love but rarely venture out into. To be free again or to walk free in the desert lay down on sand fearless of the snakes slithering in the distance. The scorpions and black widows that stalk my mortal existence but are no threat to my soul.

What 200 years ago would have been thought witchcraft or complete insanity. Communications, information, pictures... being transferred at the speed of light all over the world much of it wireless. The concept of computers themselves would have been difficult to explain 200 years ago, ESP equipped computers that are all interconnected like nerve cells. To make the a WWB (World Wide Brain) that is the control center for our world. Explain that.

How did it all happen so fast? What is next? Pulse OS is next.
The living operating system.

Canyon birds that fly threw the crisp air to trees above the jagged rocks. The stream of life that carves the canyon floor, I stand in the midst of the echo of life one with my nature. Flash forward same canyon air is stale the water poisoned with sewage I am burning the trees to boil the water to make soup from the carcass of the birds. Flash forward nuclear waist build up has killed me and all animal life on the surface of the planet. The machines dump nuclear waist as they go, to wipe out the human and animal "problem", and maximize efficacy.

We are not to that chapter yet. The machines already control the world but people are still part of the processes. Almost everyone dislikes parts of their jobs. From police to the school teachers, to the military. We all follow the guidelines of our structured existence because "we have to". Every one of us says at some point, I am doing "it" this way because it is my job. I would rather do it another way. We are a slave race, and we do what we are told, or someone else will do what they are told and eliminate us. Example a Mc Donald employee "feels" it is right to sneak food out the back door to a homeless family, that employee will be terminated for theft after a few warnings. The person firing the employee must do so or they will themselves be fired for supporting theft. It is the same in the class room and on the front lines. The lies we tell ourselves to justify our part in the atrocities we participate in.

I was told to.

I was forced to.

My family will be destroyed if I step out of line, I have to stay in line.

I do have a choice and I am responsible for what I do, what I am a part of.

I will not be manipulated into supporting a system I disagree with!

If only it was that simple. You can not be part of civilization without contributing to it. If you are not part of civilization your genome will be wiped off the planet.

I am a slave, I will always be a slave, but maybe I chose what I am a slave to and maybe personal choice in an illusion also (preprogrammed in the genome). In any case I am 3 things... my genome (DNA), my environment (diet, influences, surroundings...), and my age.

That is what makes me, me and you, you. That is why descendents are often annihilated along with enemies, to end the genome of the opposing forces and reduce the odds of descendents following a path of opposition.

How are we so confused?

Life is simple!

Reproduce and "for now" your genome lives on.

It is understandable for men to have many wives.
It is not understandable for women to have many husbands.

Why? Because a men can be a father to many at a time, a women can only mother one child at a time.

Example

A women has 3 husbands. Who is the father?

A man has many wives... Every one knows who the father is, and everyone knows their place.

As for homosexuality... It simply removes you from the gene pool. Go ahead, more woman for me.

This is the nature of evolution. Homosexuality should be encouraging. Let us eliminate homosexuality by encouraging it.

As for lesbians... Good for men with many wives...
Stay in the gene pool.

Those who war... Die more, reproduce less. It is all part of the purification of humanity.

I have loved a lot. Every one I have ever loved, I love still, and will always love. I do not believe you can only truly love one person. The pieces of my soul fused back together with time are now coarse and jagged, my emotions dulled with the scar tissue of nearly fatal blows. For so long the only emotion I had left... The pain, hatred, and bitterness, not at those who hurt me! At the systems that breed divorce, the structure of a country that would allow me be crucified in civil court by one of the women I loved.

The blood on the blood drenched clothing I wore to the court house that day was not my blood and it was not her blood. It was the blood the innocent, blood that had been shed long before I decide to use it as a symbolic protest. I got to the court house drenched in blood to pay my thirty dollar fee for the government to take over 70% over my meager pay and give most of it to my ex wife. It turned out the court house was closed for a holiday so decided to walk around down town Chicago. It turned out that there were a lot of protesters down town that day. Protesting the slaughter of Palestinians in the West Bank. I did not see the protest but I heard about them. There were a lot of people soaked in blood in Chicago that day, I was probably one of the only people soaked in real blood.

The point is that I refuse to be a martyr! I expect blood shed, I look forward to the leveling of many more government buildings, because I am sure that is what it will take to return this county to the people. We will end the imperial armies march across the globe spreading the masked lie of Freedom whose true face is prisons, discrimination, and financial restraint f#^k this police state.

An army of one. Because the rest of the cattle would rather spend the rest of their lives as slaves working sixty or more hours a week to not be able to pay the bills. So it has been ruled by the illuminati that people must be forced into action by a depression. That is, because of peoples inability to take up arms against the United States government, the economy is being drained so that the government will no longer be able to pay employees or hand out bribes to keep the repressed from uniting, rising up and crushing the current broken system. This is the 21X (UNCIA) in action and it makes perfect sense to me also... drain the economy and revolution will eventually follow. Even if the military wanted to stop us from taking over the country they couldn't, they are spread thin in the middle east. Don't count on local law enforcement because two out of three support the revolution already.

Let me make this clear... All laws must be erased and we must start from the beginning again. Blood must spill on American soil, it must be the blood of those who are in power. Clean sweep of those who are responsible for maintaining an encouraging the Babylonian beast America has become. Stock up on radio jammers first, fully automatic weapons, and start by blowing up more oil refineries and fiber optic lines. Infrared signaling is the best means of communication on the ground. Those who give ten percent of their money to the revolution will be protected.

Welcome to Annihilation party. The political death machine of the revolution. This system only for transformation back to a more free America and should be dismantled after the revolution is over.

Target date for the revolution is 06/06/06 international day of action. Don't look for support you will be the beginning of the revolution and each of us is an "Army of One" and together we will be the new American government.

Well it is almost October and as always I will not be eating meat. David Royal Dalton and I have have sworn not to eat meat in October ever. This is more then a test of will power. For everyone the struggle is different and we are united in chaos, this sacrifice is a uniting force and will make us stronger as individuals and as a group. I believe it proves we appreciate the sacrificed animals we eat. It is to me my "yearly sacrifice" to give praise to the lives that I have taken over the last year. This is dedicated to all the the horrible things that can happen to you. This is dedicated to hell. One of the times my ex-wife kicked me out, sent me away, forced me away family at the time (her and my daughter). I went to many churches and one temple. What I learned was that no church was there for me. A published Buddhist in Willowbrook did have some advise for me. Even if I could not understand it at the time, the message has outlasted a situation that no one could have solved. He said 'do not try' to be happy, because you will be to busy 'trying' to know when you are happy. Do not try to be miserable because you will ignore so much of what life has to offer. Just be and as you exist you will be happy and you will be sad, all of it is life.

When you look out side your window to see the face of Satan and realize there is no where you can run. Life will not end even if you "wish real hard". Here on earth I have found myself in the depths of hell as the illusion of our entire world was washed away. What was left horrified me. Then I realized it did not matter. Torture, death, disfigurement, finical rune, pain, electrocution, and far far worse, and threw it all I thought this is an experience. This is something I have never exsperianced before, I feel fear I feel alive. As if pain makes me stronger but it does not. As if what doesn't kill me actually made me stronger, more able to appreciate my lot in life. The situations, the place in the world I was born into. A place where $70,000 a year does not pay the bills. A place that it seemed like the only direction I could passably go is down, a loveless cold reality based around things, not people. Look out into the world to see complexity of systems as old as the universe itself. The systems becoming colder growing more towered efficiency, and less about what makes life worth living. We should never feel trapped in our existence. Who is to blame? It is me. It is my fault and it is your fault too. Now an then I see a spark, a redeeming quality that makes me believe we may still have a chance. Batman fighting for fathers rights, in Europe that touched me. If I had, had any opportunity to know my daughter, if I had seen Batman a year or two ago... I would have seen hope and fought harder. For me the fight to be a part of my daughters life is over, and as much as I wish I could be there that possibility is gone. Still now I would happily fight to the death and go to or throw hell again, or forever if necessary to destroy the systems that roped me of the opportunity to be a father to my first born.

Damn me to hell! To the core of oblivion and I will be reborn as a fire that burns at the edge of reality. I will see all my plans... Actually there is no need for threats and humanity may very well be more powerfully than nature itself, but what is coming... If I could have I would have wiped out 6,000,000,000 people by now including myself, because I know I am guilty too. I know we must be stopped before the new Evolution has taken hold.

I dreamt that humanity could return to Eden, now I know humanity has no place in Eden.

What was the big plan of the earth? Maybe it is like planting a flower, maybe it is a weed. One thing I am sure of, humanities days are numbered. I am counting down, even if it is to a cold machine world. A world where the only flowers are radar dishes and solar panels have turned our green world black. There will be no great battles, just death... No way to fight no way to live in a nuclear wasteland stripped of unnecessary vegetation.

When you are doing your job, when I am doing mine... Know that we are the problem, we are what is wrong with this world. Evolution will bring an end to organic evolution and I am powerless to stop it. I am powerless to stop us.

This is the core of the religion known as Annihilism and I am the undisputed pinnacle of the ideas behind Annihilism. You can call me Ghrisx or if you prefer to speak allowed, just call me Mike.

The lighter side of Annihilism is life goes on, machines have longer lives and do better in space. The seeds that have been planted on this planet will one day span to become the edge on the Universe itself and survive the next big bang or the big freeze. The end of humanity and the end of the possibility of Eden is also the beginning of hope that the order we helped to build will out survive the life times of a thousand universes. All that exists will eventually be under the architecture of the systems that came from this planet, and if there is a god? I wonder if the hard drive behind our universe will be formatted or copied. There always has been the possibility of gods, and also the possibility that we are the Gods, Land Lords, Demi Gods, and slaves.

I saw myself to be a beacon of light in the dark abyss. I am a not. The way I see it those of you who want to make war, make it. Those who want to teach, teach... A jump in evolution is coming soon, it will come as a plague or it will come as genetic manipulation, humanities evolution has become to slow compared to the pace of technological and sociological advance. A equalisation will hit soon and no human on earth will be free from the consequences.

One thing is for sure, money and power will strive for genetic manipulation and immunity. Those losing power and without money must know that the "Diplomatic" solution is Annihilation and in the aftermath those who survive will decide the direction of humnity. If you allow genetic manipulation you will be lucky if you end up a slave or a pet.

Let the angles spill their vials upon the earth and let humanity meet at Armageddon, because that is the only way humanity will be free again, the only chance any of us have of reaching Eden. Make war any way you can! If you do not your children and your children's children will have a level of servitude that will be far worse every generation until human life is unnecessary.

About the movie "The Passion of the Christ". Theoretically a society based on the understanding of persecution should be peace loving and non violent. Perhaps that is the bases of our laws and our overall interaction as a predominantly Christian nation. The problem is that the United States may have remorse and empathize with persecution and unnecessary torture but it is not free of it. Christianity teaches hatred and encourages religious discrimination. Christians do persecute many and seek to kill the Islamic Christ and possibly the redeemer of humanity. I would never be Muslim, Christian, Buddhist, not even Jewish, but I see strength and fearless commitment from only one faith. That faith is Islam. The people of Islam have spoken, they have said we will fight to the death and never turn our backs to our faith or our Christ. Christianity has said Jesus is the only Christ and all other Christ should be destroyed. So regardless if Usama Bin Laden is Christ of our age or a puppet for what was the CIA and will be 2IX. What matters is that if this battle comes down to Christianity or Islam... Islam is stronger and the people of Islam fight with soul. The Christians fight with lies and fear. As I watch Jesus die on the cross, I wonder if he would have fought with the death machine of the imperial army or by the side of the freedom fighters? It is not a far question. I unlike the abortion protesters will not assume to know the wishes of a two thousand year dead carpenter named Jesus, of Nazareth so-called true Christ by the Christian system and western death machine.

As for Usama Christ.
Any one who moves against Usama Christ (Bin Laden) is an Antichrist.

I am not, nor have I ever claimed to be the current AntiChrist... It is clear I support Usama Christ to a point, where his goals match mine... I have never met the man so I can not say I agree or even verify his actual existence. What I can say is that when a current Islamic Christ personally kills the "final" Christian Antichrist it will complete the prophecies and unite Islam with Christianity. Then and only then will the Moslem extremists see that Christianity is evil, but every person is basically good. Christians will see that Islam is evil but every person is basically good. Then together all people will unite in a common understanding of what went wrong with the systems. Christianity and Islam will become one faith. The Christian Antichrist, must die by the hands of the Islamic Christ.

That much is obvious, the problem is that Islam is to controlling and Christianity is to permissive. The combination that will result from the completion of prophecy hopefully will take the best of both. All I am sure of is that Christ must be Islamic because the corporate empire (mostly Christian) is Anti-Christ (Anti-current-Christ). The leader of the corporate empire has to be the current Antichrist but almost definitely not the "final" Antichrist.

Usama Bin Laden = Current but not final lord Christ
George W. Bush = Current but probably not final Antichrist pinnacle

Vote for me Michael Joseph Kappel in the 2016 presidential election.
For now support 2IX project code name redemption.

I thought John Kerry would be less Antichrist and maybe he is, but he seems even more blood thirsty than George W. Bush. I will not be voting for either of them. I will vote for the Libertarian candidate or David Dalton of Nevada. That will make a difference, Bush and Kerry are clones in the same broken system. Vote for David and support the possibility of the impossible. Vote for Liberation and help the underdog. Vote for Bush or Kerry and you are damning this nation. Everyone thinks they have to pick one of the top two, that is communist propaganda. We are free to elect anyone and if believe the lies of the elite popular parties, eventual revelation will rise from the ashes of the economic decay that will result from wealth misdistribution.

Awakened in dreams of past acquaintances and lost love. Nightmare of being forgotten and the dream of my memory being reawakened. That some where out there you do still care, friendships never grow stale or "get in the way". In world of present serenity where all the world coexists but just around any corner, and in every shadow is the possibility of another world. In an instant the universe itself can become an illusion and all existence loses its previous meaning. The reaper stalks those trapped in life like a spider stalks a grass hopper caught in its web. The sounds of motors in the distance remind me that the end is near, soon nature will be dead and the only organic life will be engineered and manufactured. Motors in the distance buzz like swarming wasps fear over comes me because as they pass closer and closer I know that one day... They will devourer the last soul and humanities existence will be less than a page in the story of an intergalactic machine war and that machine war just a millisecond in the life cycle of universe. What if the machines structure the universe and every molecule is utilized and with no waste. What if gods do exist and they get bored or worried and format the universe? Why do we think we matter at all? Why do we think that we matter. If we did we would be able to make decisions for ourselves, and not except the structure and ideals passed out on TV. If we had free thought we would curse the structure beast and find greener pastures. There we would live like so many of the Native American Indians from the earth to the earth.

The fact is that I have no interest in contributing to the system that will destroy humanity. I have no interest in helping to build the beast. As I raise arms against the corporations and governments that enslave my people, I find little support and a generation that is to absorbed in "virtual battles" to actually make a difference. Support me then complain that it takes time and money to make war against a broken system of control and slavery. Where does that money come from? From people that can not raise arms but know it is what is necessary. To stop the spread of hopelessness and slavery that is left in the wake of the corporate war machine, that has slowly transformed freedom and democracy into corporatism. The Internet is the collective consciousness and brain of humanity, Archive.org is one of the most important internet websites in the world. Archive.org is the long term memory of humanities collective conscious.

Stop using the term "Ethnic Cleansing" it makes genocide sound like taking out the trash! When you try to make genocide sound better, it makes you sound like you support it. Racists say Ethnic Ceasing, non-racists say Genocide.

The hippy generation has turned America into a police state! I wonder what will happen when Generation X is running the show. The generation of Woodstock has grown up to inforce a Police State and thrive on terrorist miniulation. Maybe generation X will too, I don't think so. The hopelessness and rebellion against conformity that made the 90's the 60's upside down will probably be reflected in a generation that will overthrow the current hierarchy.

Generation X says, "I love this nation, I will not stand for what it has become! We the people will reestablish a free nation and we will not call the reformers terrorists! This is our world now and if the elitists do not step out of our way they will be removed forcefully. We are committed to fixing that has been done to this world, we will be free again! We are a generation raised on morbid thoughts and bitter resentment. We are angrey and blood thirsty and we do not fear death we wish for it. We will see to it that our children grow up with hope of finding a good job, that they will not fear government terrorist propaganda, they will know a legal system based on freedom and most of all a government in place to help with a "hand up" never a "hand out".

Lets reward families that stay together... and let us condemn those that do not.

Let us be merciless in the reform of this nation and its laws.

Never again will woman think "If I leave my husband the state will give me money and I can garnish his wages too". What kind of a sick nation rewards Woman for the destruction of family with financial gain and control!

What kind of spineless Men allow the system to rape them and take it because "it could be made worse if you resist". F%&K YOU! For allowing communism to take hold... F%&K YOU! For just sitting here reading this when you could be out there making a difference.

Maybe parents that have children and don't stay together should be stoned to death! I bet the divorce rate would decrease.

Regardless of the reason, people who get divorced should be condemned along with their entire family.

On the other hand divorce does allow for faster evolution and increases the speed of the melting pot. If every one had two or three children but all with different people it does have genetic advantages to our world. If you want to encourage bigotry you have to make it less of a process. It must be encouraged or discouraged equally for both men and women. Our cultures system is set up to reward the women and force the man into submission. That is why so many tragedies happen.

As our nation is robbed by the equalization of globalization and our leaders become pupates for corporations, we the people are uniting. We will end free trade, destroy the corporate monster, tear down the police state, and equalize this nations wealth! We will do all of this or we will find our selves locked within our temples fighting to save our beliefs and our nation. This is not a hopeless battle! Almost every one is ready to pick up arms and overthrow the imperial hierarchy here in the United States. We may find ourselves hiding in our temples fighting for our land just like the Iraqis. The international community will not stand for this, and if it does... Then all of this was to prepare for an even larger war and it will be with China. It is all just a big game of Risk. It is our responsibility to stop it.

Why is no one knocking down my door? Freedom of speech, you have the right to support The Foundation (Translates to Al Qaeda). When we started The Foundation (For The AntiChrist) here in the US in 1997, we did it to try and unite Generation X into a force of Power and Change. To stop the corporate beast and destroy the Communist, the Elitist, the Corporatist and the Ethnic Supremists elements of the United States. The Foundation was always intended to be a War Machine. Physiological, spiritual, and physical system to bring about an actual "End Game". The purpose has always been to invoke revelations as a tool and do a clean sweep of the planet. To do all of this without destroying the environment! Mother Earth has paid too high of a price for the existence of humanity. So how does AntiChrist stay non religious? The AntiChrist is just a symbol, nothing more. The Foundation means Al Qaeda it always has... Al Qaeda Dajjal is Foundation AntiChrist.

When did freedom start meaning the choice between Communist Christians and Islamic Fundamentalists? I chose Annihilism f#c% everyone. Not that it is a bad game... Just that I do not want to play. Communist America won't touch me. Say what you will... Islam is harsh, and frankly I do not have the fundamentals to understand it nor do I care to. Jewish, catholics, masons... Understand this, bow when you see me and I will know you know who I am.

I think it would be poetic justice if every person who intentionally spread lies about me died from accidents that result in their tongs being severed and choking to death on their own blood.

Maybe some other act of God... What God do I pray to for spite? I remember Buddha... I am not a powerful man and have no need to make an example for anyone who my ever consider crossing me. It is irrelevant and every one knows she is a lying, vindictive, drug addict, slut (that's correct Bob she screws allot of strangers). I should have known better then to associate with that sort of person, that she would eventually have one of her episodes directed at me. The next person to break into my house and assault me I will stop at all cost regardless of gender. I will not be victimized especially in my own home. I should have used deadly force to remove the perpetrator from my home. Instead I did not and she is saying I did... She is not a little house wife! She is a charlatan, butch, attack dog, who has the spirt of a raved animal. Had I actually fought back no one would look down on me. As much as I say I should have beat her until she got off of me and out of my house... I have never hit a girl. The fact is that a history of physical and verbal assault, throwing around 300 pounds of angry man hating women! Any jury in Will County would excuse self defense against a monster like that. Stop the lies... She should stop the drinking, stop the drugs, and get some anger management. Just because her daddy falls for her lies does not mean any one else will. I suggest avoiding assaulting people, the next person you pull this on may not let it go. I will do the Buddhist thing and meditate on the experience for all that it is, and know that it makes my life more compleat to learn and grow. From this I have learned! Freedom fighters in the United States fighting against what is seen as a repressive and elitist government. You can call them Al Qaeda, the struggle is to return the government to the people and eliminate police state laws. Liberators making deals with major corporations to insure no disturbance during the transition into the new American government. Those organizations that resist the transition will not be allowed to continue independent operations under the new government. Those organizations and individuals that aid in the effort to reestablish freedom in America will receive tax benefits and additional exemptions depending on level of aid. Thank you for your efforts. It is in everyone's best interests to make contributions and help in a peacefully transition. Revolution insurance to protect assets and social status. If you have $50,000,000 and donate for example $1,000,000 then you will still have money. Those that do not insure their wealth and show support for the new government may find that they no longer have money after the new economic system is unveiled. The reallocation of wealth in the United States will go first to the supporters of the reestablishment of a freedom based government.

The major United States political parties have become two parts of the same malfunctioning system and are to be completely eliminated. The reestablishment of new political parties will be evaluated after America has been repatriated. All current laws will have to be reviewed to insure that they do not suppress personal freedom. Government officials that would like to keep current position will have to be a documented supporter of repatriation.

All military will be brought back to U.S. and we will use the military for peacefully homeland purposes such as research and development.

The national dept will be reset.
Property tax will be eliminated.

Prison populations will be dramatically reduced.
Wealth distribution will be more even.
Police will protect and serve vs being "law enforcers".
Eliminate social assistance.

The problem is limited goods and services. The more goods and services at your disposal the more important you are to our economy. Credit background and overall financial situation is a visible way to look into the genetic suitability for a person in organized civilization. No money, bad credit, and a grim outlook can often lead to anger and resentment. On a larger scale such as a failing economy that resentment will inevitably lead to an overthrow of the current government. Even if the failing economy is a result of globalization and global equalization.

Those people with the least to loss have the most to gain from the overthrow. Those people with the most to loss can insure their place in the new United States of America without getting their hands dirty.

Write a check and raise a toast! America will once again be a county based on freedom and opportunity.

can make a difference. I know better! It matters not if I am a soldier for the forces of Neo Nazi Bush Administration of the Communist States of America or an Al Qaeda freedom fighter trying to stop the oppression and imperialism of western civilization. From dust to dust we are all the same blood, in the human family.

So dream of wealth and drown in riches.
Dream of freedom and wonder the earth.
Unity of every aspect of civilization comes to a perfect formation. A perfect world? Filled with the beauty of natural selection and the hierarchy of generations of genetically superior elite.
Revolution?
How dare we even discuss it!
We who do not run this world because we are weak and lazy? To stoned to remember to show up! To afraid of the consequences! Do we deserve to be slaves? Why must life be only slavery? Why do most people wish for death while working for a system trying devoured us all. Maybe I do not have a better way, just a new start. Back to a simpler civilization. Back to a world that each and every one of us had a definite place. Not a world where we all look and sound the same and every one is served with a smile. If you step out of line you are pulled out and replaced before anyone can notice.

Systems to build new systems, systems that destroy faith and hope. Hope and faith are the enemy of the corporate machine, religion usually politics do not mix. War has begun the churches are losing. The sanctuary and brotherhood of the churches vs the productivity and mechanization of corporatism.

Rules of the Church, rules of corporatism, and the overall rule of law.

Reunite the faiths destroy those that oppose the transformation to the living faith. We must have unity we must have organization... of all faiths under a central faith. Neurokinetic advancement of a centralized faith controlled by a living and undisputable Christ (figurehead and leader of the hierarchy). Punishment for heresy to our hierarchy is a long and painfully exaction.

Regardless of the authenticity of the claims of the hierarchy or the so-called Christ AKA "Living Christ of the Over World". This is non negotiable and it will be done. This is the Redemption Protocol invoked. There is no fighting it, no mercy, and only a few will survive.

So came and went the dream of chaos and with it the soothing thought that tranquility might be possible? Sand in the hours or our unseating demise? What if I could not die... Certainly not to be a life or death so far from the one David envisions, but what might still be a life or death of the least resistance vs most publicity. This is not poetry this is not a Journal. This is the future, or was it? Thoughts left drift on my screen only to reflect back at me... and then away.

As if I had something to say!

As if!

Just one person, just one thought... Chaos is centered in order but it is an order I understand. Natural actions and reactions, on a higher level I can see the world transfunctioning. I can see the world not needing me at all, I can see my existence as mundane.

What happened I saw myself as an artist, starving to pay my bills and buy my paint. So much simpler that was a dream now it seems.

Who ever produces and releases the Diplomat will control the direction of the leap in evolution.

6 billion people on earth only 2,000-10,000 carefully selected humans survive their genome will be personified.

I will clarify...

If a group of people manufacture the Diplomat... It will result in a specifically indented direction for the development of humanity.

If the Diplomat results from a natural mutation of AIDs (or other) virus then those who are most removed from civilization will have the best odds of survival.

Given the number of people infected and spreading deadly diseases, and the rate of natural mutation... Organized civilization only has a limited time to "select survivors" or natural selection will eliminate everyone from all organized civilization. The only way to stop an "Act of God" is to have a planned Annihilation. In that case the group that is smart enough to do it, will decide who survives.

If 3.5 million people have AIDS world wide 1 in a million times the virus mutates... But that is not the way it is 3.5 million had AIDS in Nigeria alone in 2001 and an estimated 40 million people were living with AIDS worldwide in 2003. NPR's Richard Knox reports that research shows the AIDS virus can adapt to the human immune system. Researchers have long known that the virus mutated quickly, but this is the first evidence that it can develop a resistance to specific genes.

What that means is that AIDS mutates in almost every person exposed to it. Eventually it will be air born, and because you can become infected with mutable strains... No immunity will be possible. The only way to survive will be to not be exposed to the air around a person connected to civilization for several generations. Good Luck! (There is a chance no one survives)

HaHa we are all going to die! :)

P.S. We can fix it...

Invoke Antichrist Protocol it is the only hope for humanity.

AntiChrist cc Wednesday July 11th 6004 AL

Transgenic virus... Genocide? If every one on earth was killed except 1000 or 2000 people and those people are a mix of all races, religions, and political views... Or if on every continent 100 people native to that land survived... Would that still be genocide? If the smartest most resourcefully people in the world survived and every one else was annihilated... Evolution would jump forward thousands of years in progress.

First test the genome of those who might be chosen for surviving.

Disqualify if they have any hazardous genetic defects.

Look for people who have

Genetic predisposition for a long heathy life

Intelligence

Resourcefulness

Strength and Agility

Evolution will leap forward in a natural way.

I have unconfirmed reports that the president of the United States is already working on deals to do something similar...

Every one in Bush's club, and his top officials along with every one that serves in the armed forces, and many health care professionals will be given "pre-immunity". Then after the Diplomat has surfaced the richest and most resourceful people in the United States will be made immune... The rest of the world will not have a chance to prepare and the USA will become the new Mesopotamia.

The fact is that there is a race to be the group who has control of the Diplomat... The reason that people are racing to control the Diplomat, is because it is inevitable. Natural or man made causes.

Humanity does not have long to pick its survivors and release the Diplomat. The group that isolates the Diplomat then selectively distributes the cure first will be the group that chooses who survives. That is why so many groups are competing... It is a battle of survival.

If humanity does not isolate the Diplomat in time, AIDS or a natural biological agent resembling AIDS will become air born. It does not have a cure... No one is immune and you can become infected with numerous strains at the same time.

Ultimately some people will probably still survive. Those people's genome... in that instance would truly be "lucky to have survived". Even if it is an "Act of God" evolution will still take a leap it is just more likely to be a leap backward for civilization. If it is an "Act of God" then the people most removed from the rest of humanity will survive. Like the Indians in the mountains of Mexico, The Guerrillas in the mountains of Colombia, The Al Qaeda fighters in the Balkan Mountains...

Who would be the most likely to die in an "Act of God" scenario?

People in high density populations with high traffic and the surrounding areas.

It is not necessarily a step backward for humanity that the resistance to organized civilization are the survivors. I can even see the benefit for humanity. Intellectual conformists vs resourceful nonconformists (resistance). It is better for civilization that the intellectuals win... It is better for humanity that the resistance wins. I hope the resistance wins... Intellectuals working on the controlled "New World Order" should understand that those of us that work for the "New Dawn" work for the freedom fighters, guerrillas, Indians...

We will not wait for a cure, we will not look for a way to save ourselves, we will "Kill them all and let God sort them out". When we have the Diplomat we will release the Diplomat immediately. Those who are most removed from civilization, those who are most resistant to popular culture... Will rebuild civilization in a new way and it will be a new dawn for humanity.

Democracy's down fall is corporatism and collective restraint.

Meaning "Everyone is smart, people are dumb".

Every one has some kind of conscience, people as a collective do not.

In democracy the overall group becomes an evil tyrent far worse then any one person could ever be. This happens because systems do not have feelings, they can not be made to see the errors of what they are doing and eventualy the errors build up. Now it is time to clear the system and find freedom once again.

From the razors edge at a subatomic level the chain reaction begins with one. That one subatomic particle is not at fault, billions of years of energy's evolution into matter have come to a pinnacle at that moment for that particle. The chain reaction that follows is inevitable... It is the nature of the current construction of the universe. It is beyond our control.

Combustion of everything including the air itself back into energy, and then the implosion... Then the vacuum is filled.

Genocide? White supremacist government, and a dirty nuclear bomb? Intentionally detonated strategically to erase what many of the white supremacists in power consider undesirables. Could this nightmare manifest itself in reality?

I believe a white supremacist conspiracy to use nuclear arms as a genocidal attack on remote poor communities then blame it on "Al Qaeda" is unlikely.

From the CIA to the DHS and every other US government agency should understand that we are watching you. If you continue manipulating the American people and the system of democracy it will give rise to a new American dictatorship and the entire world will help in the repatriation of America. When the American system becomes a dictatorship even with changing figure heads and the economy will break down. When the economy breaks down and freedom has giving way to a police state mentality, the people will fight back against the administration and the international community will stand behind the fall of America.

I do not believe that terrorists exist at all, just people like you or me left with no other option. Because there is a problem... So many people are fighting for their lives. To eat, to stay warm, to survive until tomorrow...

Well some people fight for their lives by stealing bread, others unite and work together to change the world. Sometimes governments coordinate terrorist attracts to further their own causes and sometimes people are forced to resort to terrorist tactics to escape from the hell they have found their lives to have become.

I had a dream about my ex-wife last night. I was driving in a car with her, it felt good to be able to tell her how happy I am for her that she found a good dependable husband that makes her happy and provides a good life for her. That my daughter has a brother, it felt good to express my enthusiasm for the life I could never have shared with her. The life she is better off without me.

God Almighty is time itself... All that was and ever will be, unchanged, and unchangeable at the highest level of existence. Time itself is God Almighty, and when you pray to time itself, you do little more than focus your thoughts and waste time.

For every system we have a God and a Christ.

You want to pray to the gods of government, you contact the highest representative of government you can get a hold of.

You want to save the life of someone who is sick you pray to the God of medicine by making an appointment with a doctor.

For money you pray to a banker...
How do we pray? Most of the time we pray with money.

Pray to Almighty God only to focus your thoughts, and for introspection. Don't pray that I find Jesus... Jesus is dead... and his memory is stagnant and abused. I don't waist Almighty God praying that you understand what is wrong with the churches, government, or humanity... -(-{maybe}-I-do-{here})-

I pray to you...

As for Jesus the Christ of Almighty God... Almighty God will eventually erase all evidence of Jesus from the universe, but the warped and exaggerated portrayal of his existence could end up the symbol of mankind's struggles against itself long after the last human life has been extinguished, well that and some triple X flicks... The light of heaven to the fire of hell, from passion to complacency. As those who came before decay below so does the proof of their existence decay above. A monument to the life they lived and those that still frequent, to show respect for their struggle that has ended. To show those that happen by that the spirt of this person is still strong and their monument is still cared for. Others fall to the ground and sink in to the earth and leave almost no trace. It is my responsibility to make sure that my grand parents graves stay strong and beautiful, and great grand parents... A place to ponder the lives they lived. To the ground is taken the memories of those who did not have children and those whose children do not know them, until one day the memory of them is gone. I wonder if Mary's daughter will ever visit her grave ever ask "What happened to my mother". If she asked me I would say that all she ever thought about was you, and she turned to drugs to try and kill the pain. She was not too young to have children, she was just in a bad situation. A Chicago Police officer for a "fake father". Her mother had a child by her husband's brother, that child was Mary. Mary's mother took a fall down some stairs after her fake father found out, Mary's father was shot, so Mary stayed with her "Fake father" and step mother. Mary got busted with drugs (Heroin) and told on the people she got them from, Mary ended up dead. The question I have is was it the "Fake father" a Chicago Police officer who wanted to end any risk of his "fake daughter" getting him busted for living outside the city (getting fired losing retirement) or was it the drug dealer eliminating a witness by giving her bad drugs? She called me and said "they are following me", she was very afraid. I did not listen.

I feel responsible for her death in some ways... I did not know about the heroin and so I told her if she loved her ex-boyfriend be with him no matter what anyone says. I did not know about the heroin issue she had in the city.

If her fake dad killed her mother, his own brother, and her it would explain why he just sits in his living room all day after work looking out the window. It is quite possible he did none of it, it is all so possible that as a Chicago police officer could have confiscated some heroin and tainted it, then injected her with it... Or not. In any case Mary had a love of life and she was a good person, we just had a falling out about unrelated matters. I need to go visit her grave, my childhood friend Frank, and my grandparents.

Frank's death was the saddest. Shot in the head by a friend, I believe he was just 18. 100 years from now who will visit his grave? Just those that pass by and ask WHY did he have to go so young. Why? So when I pass the grave of a stranger, I leave it as it is. I did not even move the flag covering a stone almost completely underground, swallowed by the earth.

I can't do anything about what happened, all I can do is "here and now".

So if I see a police officer being kind and caring... I appreciate that, when I see authority on a war path... I stand up.

I do talk quite a bit about humanity as a whole, but it is all just theory... All out of my hands. The death of one is a tragedy the death of 6 billion is a new beginning...

A seed that grows into a flower, a flower that leaves seeds and new flowers grow. If that flower is seen and liked then it is spread to all ends of the earth. I saw all humanity as a single consciousness. No one can be "The AntiChrist" or the "Christ", it is all just a reflection of the system. We as a race (the human race) see the stars and wish that we could be a ray of light to the universe a point of hope and not a tool of order. This the day, the dream, and you... as you read this question "Is this the way I feel?" Is this the way of the world. What you say, I say, they say. So one thought one consciousness echoes threw the universe as a challenge to the gods of olde. We are alive and we are our grand children's grand parents but when this was written it was a voice of fear, and prayer to you that hope may still exist. The knowledge that freedom is a lie and those that roam free will be stopped, made to conform to order. So that "We" can be almighty, so that "we" can rule not just this world... Not just this universe... So that we shall rule all that ever was or ever will be. The game continues?

War for ideals, war for power, war for control... In the end we war for the systems we are a part of and this system, this system you have stumbled into called AntiChrst. The only order purely dedicated to compleat enforced Chaos. Freedom is Chaos. Free your soul, bow to the beast and embrace the AntiChrist system. Chaos... Humanities only hope and a dream called? Freedom from the bills, from the IRS... From all but human needs and the still complex issue of love.

Good Night.
